Evils of smoking, antitobacco tilt posters highlighted at Read-Along

By Larry Quisenberry
Read-Along Staff

NEW YORK — A 1980s anti-smoking poster in the back of a car was the first thing that caught the eye of a young man walking through the streets of New York City.

The young man was walking in the city of New York, and he was looking at the poster. The poster was a black and white photograph of a man in a suit, looking at the camera. The man was holding a cigarette in his hand. The poster was a tilt poster, and it was part of a campaign to highlight the evils of smoking.

Massive cleanup drive vs dengue in Iloilo on Sept. 1

Iloilo, Sept. 1 (PNA) — A massive cleanup drive against dengue fever was launched in Iloilo on Sept. 1. The city government, in cooperation with the health department, organized a city-wide cleanup drive to eliminate breeding grounds for the dengue-carrying Aedes mosquito. Volunteers from various organizations and the general public participated in the drive, which focused on cleaning up trash, removing stagnant water, and painting over mosquito breeding sites. The health department reported that dengue cases have been rising in the city, and the cleanup drive is expected to help reduce the number of cases.

MANILA HOSTAGE CRISIS Boracay reels from backlash

By Thomas P. O'Connell Jr.
Manila, Sept. 1 (PNA) — The Manila hostage crisis has triggered a backlash against Boracay, a popular tourist destination. The crisis, which began on Aug. 28, has resulted in the evacuation of thousands of tourists and the closure of the island to international flights. The backlash has led to a decline in tourism and a loss of revenue for the local economy. The Philippine government has expressed its regret over the crisis and has promised to take steps to prevent such incidents in the future.

Exports to Japan grew by 27% in H1

Manila, July 20 — Exports to Japan grew by 27% in the first half of 2007, according to data released by the Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA) on Tuesday.

The PSA said that the value of exports to Japan for the first half of 2007 reached $1.5 billion, up from $1.2 billion in the same period last year.

The increase was driven by a 35% rise in exports of electronic products, which reached $400 million in the first half of 2007, compared to $300 million in the same period last year.

Exports of agricultural products also grew by 15% to $250 million, while exports of manufactured goods rose by 10% to $850 million.

The PSA said that the growth in exports to Japan was a result of the strong demand for Philippine products in the Japanese market.

It also noted that the Philippines remains one of the fastest-growing economies in the Asia-Pacific region, with a projected growth rate of 7% for 2007.

The world has never seen a more powerful person. But America's power is not in its sword. America's power is in its ideas. America's power is in its people. America's power is in its spirit. America's power is in its heart. America's power is in its soul. America's power is in its mind. America's power is in its will. America's power is in its faith. America's power is in its hope. America's power is in its love. America's power is in its peace. America's power is in its justice. America's power is in its freedom. America's power is in its democracy. America's power is in its humanity. America's power is in its God.

When the alloy contains less than 10% copper, the material is called "brass." When the alloy contains more than 10% copper, it is called "bronze." The alloy is called "brass" because it is made from brass. The alloy is called "bronze" because it is made from bronze.
